Directions to Pesca Maya: Out of Cancun, Playa del Carmen or any place at the Riviera Maya. Drive the highway # 307 south, pass Tulum Ruins and at the next red light turn left towards the coast, follow Bocapaila, Sian Ka'an and Punta Allen signs. Next turn right, you will drive 45 km on this road until you get to Pesca Maya. Punta Allen road it is world famous for its holes, sand dunes, being floated, but it is also beautiful, along the coast, with a stunning ocean view. As of March 2007, the road is in pretty good conditions, any car can make it, but a Jeep is always a better choice, just in case some rain floats parts of the road. Check with us road conditions. On the way you will find Sian Ka'an arch. At the gate you will have to pay US$2.00 per person, per day as an entrance fee. 20 km (13 miles) further you will find Bocapaila breach, and another 13 miles later you will see the Pesca Maya sign. Turn left, if the gate is closed please ring the bell, if it is open, please drive in about 100 yards and turn left until you arrive at Seclusion House. You will be greeted by Jorge Corona, our operations manager.
